

ABOUT

The City of Hoover Parks and Recreation Department cordially invites you to this year's PET-A-PALOOZA on Saturday, November 17, 2007 at Hoover's Veterans Park.

The 4th Annual Event begins at 9 am with a Pet Walk sponsored by Hoover Parks and Recreation and ABC33/40 with proceeds benefiting Shelby County Humane Society and concludes at 3 pm with the results of the "Collect the Bones for the Bowl" contest. ABC 33/40 will award the winner with Two Tickets to the Iron Bowl.

The Academy Sports and Outdoors "Kid's Fun Zone" will have a variety of inflatables. This inclusive area will have a one time charge for the day. Proceeds from the "Kids Fun Zone" will benefit Hoover Parks and Recreation Foundation.

Other activities during the day will be a chance to shop pet related vendors and home made arts and crafts, listen to music, eat from the vast array of food choices, and view a Pet Fashion Show by High Style Pets and to be entertained by a variety of pets and people contests.

Shelby County Humane Society will be looking for some new homes for the many animals. There will also be many other rescue groups and pet related animal groups out to educate and promote awareness on a variety of pet issues.

Bring your family to this fun filled family day at the Park. For more information, check out the Website at hooveral.org and go to special events.

For more information, contact Dee Nance at 444-7765 or nanced@ci.hoover.al.us

